

Beware of Theft from Unattended Belongings!

There have been incidents of theft from unattended belongings (known as “Okibiki”) in streets, commercial facilities, and pachinko parlors.

Please be careful not to become a victim by keeping the following three points in mind.

[Watch Out]

Always carry valuables with you and keep an eye on them

Keep your bag securely closed, and make sure wallets and valuables are not visible from outside

Avoid being distracted by your smartphone or cell phone

If you become a victim . . .

Please report it to the nearest police box or the local police station.

